Have you noticed that this year will have fifty three Sundays? It began on Sunday and will end on Sunday. One extra to attend church, to spend reading Scriptures, playing with the children or breaking the two-year-old colt. Arrange to avail yourself of these opportunities which 1905 offers you, for it will be one hundred years before such an opportunity will come around again. And then where'll you be? says an exchange.

Anderson County has lost another good citizen in the death of Mr. A. Whit. Guyton, which occurred at his home in Hopewell Township last Saturday night about 10 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for several months and has been confined to his bed about one month. Mr. Guyton was the only son of the late Robert Guyton, was 71 years of age, was born, reared and spent his life in the section where he died. He served his State faithfully and zealously through the Civil war as a member of the famous Orr's Regiment, and was highly esteemed by all of his old comrades and friends. In his young manhood he married Miss Sarah E. Smith, who preceded him to the grave about nine years ago, and he is survived by two sons and four daughters, who in their sore bereavement have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends. On Sunday afternoon the remains were interred at Hopewell Church, Rev. C. S. Blackburn conducting the funeral services in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends.
